Presidents Message...

Fellow woodturners,

The last few weeks at various venues has been good for the club sales. Having said that, the table is bare again and we need to refill the club selections for sale.

Next month's demonstrator is David Sapp, the owner of Woodcraft in Nashville. He is an excellent teacher and will give an enlightening presentation.

Please support your club by bringing items to donate, the more the better! Preferably an item we can use to show the public our capabilities and opportunities available to them. I hope everyone will support the club. Items in the price range of 5 to 10 sell fast and we need more of them.

There are only two more Saturdays left for the Marketplace...Oct 4th and Oct 18th. Thanks to all who helped carry the load. Hope you all did well with your individual sales.

If anyone wants something from Woodcraft, give them a call and David will bring it to the meeting.

Thank you,
Jon Haigh

PS. Bring something for Show 'n Tell.

Jack Bastin September Demonstrator

Jack begins making a bottle stopper. As usual Jack wowed the crowd with his expertise.

Coming Monday the 6th. David Sapp... October Demonstrator...

You will want to see this presentation. David is a professional teacher of Woodworking, particularly woodturning. He is owner of the Woodcraft store in Franklin, TN.

We recently watched David demonstrate to the Nashville Club, (TAW). He was as professional as any demonstrator we have ever seen.

He is thorough in his demonstration and his explanation every step of the way.

Come Monday and see for yourself.

Good News!!!

About our meeting place.

Jon Holloway announced at last meeting that the F.O.P. Lodge will be available to us for our continued use.

We are so fortunate to have this fine facility to Meet in for our Monthly meetings and to demonstrate and help beginners, and it is a goodplace to store our Lathes.

Please see Jon and express your gratitude for his part in this and for his long time efforts as a leader in our club.

September 13th was a busy Saturday for our Club.

We were involved with the Frolic on Franklin and the Marketplace first Saturday group event. See pictures below of each.

Franklin Street Follies

Clarence Duzan, Bryce Breyly, Charles Putnam. John Duzan, and Bob Forsythe manned the booth at the Follies event on Sat, Sept. 13th The Franklin Street Follies is an annual event that usually draws lots of onlookers. As you can see from the coats, it was a cold day.

Marketplace First Saturday Group

Jim Mason, Jack Bastin, and Jon Haigh manned the booth at the Marketplace event on Sat, Sept. 13th The heavy coats tell the story of the weather. In spite of that sales were good.

The Library.....

Billy Dickens, our Librarian, invites you to check out one of the many learning tools...books, videos, etc.

If you have checked anything out lately, be sure to check the return date. If more time is needed, give Billy a call at 931 645 9210 or email him at billy.dickens@iildickens.com

New Safety Shield

Many thanks to Mike Patrick for making the shield shown above. Good job Mike. And thanks for the monetary support Charles Maddux.
