SEPTEMBER 2019 NEWSLETTER

Hello Fellow Turners

BY BEN FERGUSON, EDITOR

Hope you've all had time this past month to do some turning! Hopefully making progress on those Gander Memorial bowls.

We were also asked if we can make some pens from the Memorial wood. Woodcraft graciously donated pen hardware for us to make the pens as it was in keeping with their 'Pens for Troops' program. Many thanks to David Sapp of Woodcraft and current President of the TAW for making this happen!

I have enough pen hardware for 50 pens which will be available at Monday's meeting. In addition, I'll be doing a demo on how to make a pen as well as some video clips on techniques for variations to the basic pen making process.

Meeting Minutes

The September 2019 Tuckesseee Woodturners Club Meeting was called to order by President Steve Sabinash at 7:00 pm on Monday September 2nd, 2019 at the FOP Lodge 2576 North Ford Street in Clarksville TN.

Following discussion, it was decided we should reinstate the Tuesday Night Turn-Ins. These will be held on the Tuesday night preceding the fourth Saturday of each month 6:30 PM until 9:00 PM. Charles Wall will put together a calendar showing the Tuesday Turn-Ins, Saturday Turn-Ins, and club meeting for next year.

Steve advised he could use some help this Saturday September 7, 2019 cutting bowl blanks on the bandsaw for the Gander Memorial project. He will be working at his home and has two bandsaws available. Contact Steve if you can help.

We have three more dates to participate in the Clarksville Downtown Market.

These are:

September 14, 28

October 12

On Saturday and Sunday November 9 and 10, we will participate in the Christmas Handmade Holidays to be held at the Wilma Rudolph Pavilion. We will have a corner table which should give us plenty of room to show our wares.

John Haigh pointed out that September 18th - 21st is Military Appreciation Weekend.
