Presidents Message...

Hello fellow woodturners,

Another month gone and we are getting closer to our last craft show of the year, the holiday craft fair at Liberty park at the marina. It is the 15th & 16th of November.

Again, we are very low of articles for the club to sell due to a good day at the last marketplace. So please donate again, we need enough for the 2 day showing at the holiday craft fair.

Thanks for all your support this last year. See you at the meeting on Monday, the 3rd.

PS. Bring something for Show 'n Tell.

Tulips (see Show'n Tell section for more by Mike)

Coming Monday the 3rd.... November Demonstrator...

Bob Forsythe, our Past President, will demonstrate how to turn different types of ornaments.

It is that time of year when many people are considering ornaments and you may be thinking of one or several as gifts

So come on out to learn and to show your support.

David Sapp was our... October Demonstrator

David made a Richard Raffan Inspired Lidded Box which was big enough to use for the Beads of Courage Project... Approx 6" in Diameter!

He went over how to shape the base and Hollow it out so that there were no Chuck Marks! He fit the lid to match the Base and turned it so it showed no chuck marks on it as well.

David said "This was a fun project that taught some alternate holding methods and demonstrated proper tool control and techniques for turning a lidded box."

Continued....

Thanks, David, for your generosity and for a great job.

David Sapp can be reached at 106 Mealer Street, Franklin, TN 37067, 615-498-1585 or at the Franklin, & Chattanooga, Tn. Woodcraft Stores david.sapp@me.com

The October Turn-in... Was not very Successful.

Only one visitor showed up and no one turned anything.

Members, especially newer turners...this is the place to get those little extra tips that will help your learning curve skyrocket. Utilize this service...it is free and a lot of our members put aside their Saturdays and their time just to be there for YOU...the only reason for the Turn-in.

I know it is easy to forget about it...so make plans to participate and put it on your calendars.

Marketplace First Saturday Group

Jon Haigh pictured, and Jim Mason were the only two members to show. And, even though it was uncomfortably cold, it was one of the best days for sales this year. Jim and Jon both were very busy and made lots of sales.

Memorial Bowls For Gander Air Crash Families

The Bowl blanks are ready to hand out Monday at the meeting. Those willing to turn one should be prepared to have it ready at the December Meeting.
